VIKINGS CRUISE AGAIN

April 2nd rolled around and fourteen "eager to feel warm weather" people boarded a plane at South Bend Regional Airport at 6:30 am. We were bound for a seven day cruise to Honduras, Grand Cayman, Belize, and Cozumel. Only four were Vikings.

Several of us ate too much, played machines too much, and had too much fun. Jeff Roberts and Mo received the true "Gombay Smash" Wednesday afternoon. Everyone shopped at any store possible and Mary Burnside and I took advantage of jewelry sales on the ship - Carnival Valor. The weather in all places was fabulous, but tendering to Belize was quite tricky. The boat didn't seem safe and the trip took twenty minutes (a real twenty minutes) from ship to shore. Two nights were dress up nights and the developed pictures showed that Vikings can look good!

We even had a great guide (looked like Tiger Woods) on a shore excursion in Grand Cayman. Petting dolphins and seeing Jeff's picture in his Bob Marley hat was certainly exciting.

All in all the trip was a success. If you are interested in the next cruise, Alaska next June or July was mentioned. Check the Scroll for future information. See you on the next cruise!!!

Your Viking cruise director,
Sue Dale
