

VIKING SCROLL

HAPPY 35TH BIRTHDAY!

This year is the Viking Ski Clubs 35th year. As you can see the club is still young. Our president, Sue Dale, is contacting past club officers and will be inviting them to join us to celebrate the club's birthday. The banquet theme is The Viking 35th Year Reunion. Join us for the evening. If the last two years are any indication it will be a great time. Contact Ed Smoker to make your reservation. Additional details can be found on page 3.

VIKINGS TO VOTE APRIL 22

At this month's general meeting Vikings will have the opportunity to elect new leadership. A slate of potential candidates for offices and board positions has been prepared by the current Viking officers. The slate has been published on page 3. Any club member can run for any office or board position. Additionally, any club member can nominate another member for any position.

Contact Sue Dale if you are interested in becoming involved in your club.

BANQUET TO BE HELD AT TIPPECANOE RESTAURANT

By popular demand the annual banquet will again be held at Tippecanoe Restaurant. The Banquet is open to everyone; members, friends and non-members. For the low price of $25 you can have three entrees (chicken, fish, or prime rib). The club will buy dessert. Additionally, there will be door prizes as well as 8 cash prizes. If you're lucky you may eat for free. Contact Ed Smoker to reserve your spot and select your entree. Reservations are required.

BRECKENRIDGE SCRAPBOOK FINISHED

Sue Dale collected pictures from the trip Breckenridge trip participants and used them to create a memory book of the trip. We got to look at it at the last general meeting. Thanks Sue you did a terrific job. Sue also passed the pictures on to Shawn Rosinski who created a Breckenridge trip DVD.

BRECKENRIDGE DVD DISTRIBUTED

Shawn Rosinski created a DVD from the Breckenridge photographs. Because these pictures came from a number of different individuals they show a very complete story of this years western trip. The DVDs were handed out at the March general meeting. If you were on the trip see Sue Dale for your copy.

BUSY, BUSY, BUSY

Your club officers and board are busy working hard to make this summer great. They are looking into biking, bowling, canoeing, golfing, and more.

Its never too early to get started so your winter trip chair has already requested bids for our 2009 western trip. The board has a number of terrific ski destinations to consider.
